Presidents' Day

Presidents' Day originated in the 1880s when the birthday of
George Washington was first celebrated as a federal holiday.
Today, Presidents' Day, honors all U.S. presidents.
This year, Presidents' Day is celebrated on Monday, February 15, 2021.

George Washington and Abraham Lincoln Puppets

1. Print out the templates on page 2 of this document.
2. Color George Washington and Abraham Lincoln. Use the photos below as inspiration.
3. Cut on the blue lines so you have a top and bottom to each president's face.
4. Take a paper lunch bag and turn it upside down so the flap is at the top.
5. Glue the top of George Washington's head on the flap.
6. Glue the bottom of George Washington's head below the flap on the paper bag. (See image below).
7. Repeat steps 4 through 6 for Abraham Lincoln.
8. Use your puppets to put on a show for your family.
