Spring 2023 Edition
The Farm Museum is delighted to have been awarded a $107,650.00 grant from the Maryland State Tourism Grant Program (Economic Development Administration) for the purchase of an Outdoor Mobile Stage. This stage will allow each of our event organizers to showcase their musical acts in a more professional manner, and its mobility will allow us to move its location to best serve each function.
All Veterans, Military, their families, and all citizens, are invited to the:

Volunteer Recognition Ceremony

On March 31, 2023, the Museum held its first Volunteer Recognition Ceremony since re-opening from the pandemic! Eight wonderful volunteers were honored for their cumulative milestone hours of service to the Museum. Volunteers truly are the backbone of the Carroll County Farm Museum and there is no way the Museum would be a success without them. On behalf of everyone here at the Carroll County Farm Museum, we would like to say a big thank you from the bottom of our hearts and we look forward to continuing to work with all our amazing volunteers in the future!

The Farm Museum is delighted to welcome Elaine Shirley to the staff as the Curator and Farm Animal Supervisor. Elaine spent 37 years at Colonial Williamsburg and is excited to be returning to Carroll County where she grew up on the Shirley family farm. She has a background in historic trades, and is involved with numerous historic and farm related organizations, such as the Livestock Conservancy and the Association of Living History Farms and Museums.

The newest member of the fiberglass farm animal family in the Hoff Barn finally arrived at the Farm Museum to the delight of the staff, who named her Penelope. Penelope, a replica of a Hampshire pig, completes the display of animals who represent the original residents of the historic 18th century log barn. Thanks to a grant from the Maryland Heritage Area Authority, we were able to purchase this wonderful addition to the Hoff Barn exhibit. Welcome Penelope!

This program is made possible by a grant from the Heart of the Civil War Heritage Area, a certified heritage area of the Maryland Heritage Areas Authority.

Stitching History: Connecting Our Community through Quilting and the Carroll County Barn Quilt Trail

The Carroll County Farm Museum was awarded a wonderful grant from the Maryland Heritage Area Authority to support a project to upgrade our historic quilt and coverlet exhibit, and link it to the Carroll County Barn Quilt Trail. This grant has enabled us to have the collection professionally evaluated, and to purchase display cases and archival materials used to store the collection of nearly 90 quilts and coverlets. We hope to have the exhibit completed and open to the public by late Spring, and we extend our sincere appreciation to MHAA for awarding this generous grant to the Museum.

This program is made possible by a grant from the Heart of the Civil War Heritage Area, a certified heritage area of the Maryland Heritage Areas Authority.

In the May 1863 battle of Chancellorsville, Confederate General Robert E. Lee faced with a larger union force advancing under General Joseph Hooker, audaciously divided his force, leaving a portion to hold Hooker’s attention while Stonewall Jackson executed a slashing attack on the Union flank. We will be portraying that portion of the battle, with Confederate forces on the attack and Union forces turning to mount a desperate defense to stop them. Historically, Jackson’s men drove deep into the Union flank before being halted by an improvised Union line and by encroaching darkness. The battle ended in a Confederate victory, but resulted in the mortal wounding of Jackson in a friendly fire incident. Food is available for purchase at the event. Admission is $10 per family, $5 per adult and $4 per senior (60 & older)
