Farmyard Friends Have Returned

Our wonderful Farmyard Friends have returned to the Farm Museum as we approach our busy 2024 season. Our newest additions are the Pygmy goats: Mario, Luigi, Lucy and Bambi, and they will live year round in their newly built pen. Jack and Jim, the beautiful Red Devon Oxen, are back from their winter home, and are enjoying their lush pasture and their many visitors. And our sheep have returned! Please come and visit, as our animals LOVE visitors!

Welcome John!

The Carroll County Farm Museum is excited that John Boag has joined the staff as the Coordinator of Historic Trades. He will be involved with our school groups and summer camps, will help with planning our many events, and will be in his shop in the lower level of the Alms Barn demonstrating historic woodworking for our visitors. John was the Master Wheelwright at Colonial Williamsburg, working there for 35 years, and is the recipient of numerous awards. He is a frequent demonstrator and interpreter at Mt. Vernon as well as a volunteer Distillery Assistant. Welcome John!
